

The South Edmonton Fellowship Centre (Fellowship Centre) is an Alberta not-for-profit society, a Canadian registered charity, and appears on the Canadian Mental Health Association (Edmonton) List of Resources for People with Addictions. Its mandate is to provide a welcoming space for community-based, volunteer-facilitated, free of charge (donations welcome) addiction recovery support.

Nomination for Membership

Name and Contact Information of Nominator (must be a member of the Fellowship Centre):

Name and Contact Information of Person Nominated for Membership:

Has this person agreed to this nomination?

Has this person demonstrated commitment to advancing the betterment of the Fellowship Centre? If so, how?

What specific skills does this person have that are needed to advance the betterment of the Society? (for example, knowledge and understanding of addiction and recovery, finance and accounting, information and communication technology, writing and research, organizing and coordinating volunteers, book and record keeping, fundraising, public relations, non-profit and corporate knowledge and experience)

For more information and to return the completed form: info@fellowship-centre.org